

Informed Consent

Client consent for care services

Purpose

This form confirms that the client (or substitute decision maker) understands and consents to the personal and companion care services provided by Ubuntu Haven Living.

Nature of Services

Services may include assistance with bathing, dressing, toileting, mobility, meal preparation, medication reminders, light housekeeping, transportation support, and companionship. Services do not include licensed medical care, wound care, or medication administration unless performed by a qualified professional contracted separately.

Risks & Benefits

Benefits include improved quality of life, dignity, and independence. Risks include the inherent possibility of falls, skin injury, or discomfort during transfers, which caregivers are trained to minimise.

Right to Refuse or Withdraw

The client may refuse any specific care task at any time and may withdraw consent in whole or in part, in writing, at any time.
